TEXT BOOK INDEPENDENT PASSAGES

Questions (1-5)

TYPE-1

1. Many animals are able to communicate with each other very well – but none of them can talk as we do. That is, no animal uses words. Birds cry out and make sounds that other birds understand. Smells, movements and sounds are used for communication by animals, through which they express joy or anger or fear.

Human speech is a very complicated process, which no animals can perform. One reason is that in a very special way we use a whole species of organs to produce the sounds we want to make when we utter words.

For human beings, therefore, the use of words means the use of labels or symbols and then organizing them is a certain way to communicate something. This requires a degree of intelligence and logical thinking that no animals have. So they can't talk the way people do.

Now answer the following questions. Each question has four choices, choose the correct answer and write (a), (b), (c) or (d) in your answer booklet.

Questions (11-15) Read the following passage.

1. Bird migration is the regular seasonal movement, often north and south along a flyway between breeding and wintering grounds. Migration is driven primarily by availability of food. Threats to migratory birds have grown with habitual destruction especially of stop over and wintering sides, as well as structures such as power lines and wind farms.

Birds which spend the summer in the higher reaches of mountains come down during the winter to the lower foot hills or even the plains. Birds are punctual too unless they are delayed by bad weather. Some birds make the long journey in easy stages, stopping to rest on the way. Others fly great distances without pausing to rest and feed. Some fly by day, some both by day and by night, but most of them speed on their way through darkness after the sun has set.

Choose the correct answer from the option given and write in your answer script.

Profile

Features:

A profile shows the details of a person, but not in complete sentences. When we talk about any person in detail, it should be in a sequential order right from birth to the achievements.

So the headings usually covered are like Name, Date of Birth, Family details, Studies, Childhood days, Entry into the field, Struggles, Achievements, Awards, Message.

It depends on the given input to write the details.
